AGENDA

Aging adults: Is there room for us in Alaska?

Legislative Hearing

Hosted by Representative Sharon Cissna Friday, October 29, 2004

Legislative Information Office 2nd Floor Conference Room 716 West 4th Avenue

(Portions of this program will be televised from the University of Alaska Anchorage gerontology/geriatrics programs. If you wish to attend this program at the University, please call the contact number below.)

1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Time	Agenda Item	Host Site
1:00 p.m.	Welcome	Anchorage LIO
1:10 p.m.	General overview and goals	Anchorage LIO
1:15 p.m.	Panel 1: Foundation - economic and social underpinnings Educators and economists address the evolving economic and social values of Alaska's aging population	UAA Business Education Building (BEB) Room 117
1:40 p.m.	Panel 2: Systems and structures - machinery of senior care Policymakers address governing systems, program structures and operations that will improve efficiencies, collaborations, and avoid duplications	Anchorage LIO
2:05 p.m.	Panel 3: Hearing from aging adults The seniors voice their perspectives on aging in Alaska	Anchorage LIO
3:05 p.m.	Panel 4: Providing services to seniors Service providers address efficiencies and challenges within the service sector	Anchorage LIO
3:30 p.m.	Panel 5: Making change happen Legislators address recommendations for making meaningful state policy to serve seniors	Anchorage LIO
3:55 p.m.	Closing comments	Anchorage LIO

For information on either the Legislative Hearing or the UAA Senior Forum, phone: 907/269-0190 (collect calls accepted between 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.).